This year's annual Christmas Barmouth peal was rung to mark the centenary of the first peal here of Grandsire Triples on 26th September 1903. This was also the 25th on the bells; 18 of these peals have been Surprise, 3 of Stedman, 3 of Plain Bob Major and 1 Grandsire Triples. Frederick Shallcross's contribution on the tenor was outstanding and it would be remiss of any footnote not to record this sterling performance.
