When Donald G Clift and friends rang their first peal, halfway through the peal the conductor said: "I have had enough of this, you (Don) will have to call the rest, which he did, then 16 years old. Then 60 years later he rang the same bell in the 60th anniversary peal, the ringers of 3,4,5 and 6 ringing with him. This peal today is in memory of Don Clift and also to wish David Hughes a speedy recovery after his recent operation. David is the only person who did not ring today but rang in the peal 20 years ago.
